TOT DIES DESPITE FIREMEN'S EFFORT

The five-month-old son of a young Newark couple died in the local firehouse early Tuesday despite the efforts of firehouse rescuator crews.

Dead is Mark Lee Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson, 716 Cherry Road.

Mrs. Richardson told officers the infant had been ill for several days. Tuesday morning she noticed his breathing had stopped. She dashed into the street, halted a passing Highway Patrol car driven by Officer Gene Davidson, and sped to the firehouse.

There crewmen, directed by Chief Joe Pashote, labored in vain for 45 minutes before the baby was pronounced dead by Dr. J. J. O'Connor. The body was taken to San Francisco following an autopsy.

The Richardsons have an older child, a girl.

NEWSTANDS GONE, YOUTHS ARRESTED

Jailed for stealing six newsracks containing $11.81 from in front of a Centerville market Monday night was James G. Rader, 21, of Hayward, and a youthful friend.

Rader and a juvenile companion were nabbed in Rader's yellow convertible after an unidentified pedestrian reported he spotted them loading the racks into the car.

Rader appeared Tuesday before Judge E. A. Quaresma, and was held on $500 bail on petty theft charges, to appear again Friday.

The youths reportedly told Deputy Sheriffs R. G. Swaynie and T. E. Bunting they tossed the empty racks in a gravel pit.

RAIL STRIP AT NILES 'EYESORE'

Termed "the biggest eyesore in town," the Southern Pacific right-of-way here was the target of criticism at a meeting Tuesday of the Niles Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. T. C. Wilson complained that weeds and stray papers litter the strip, fronting on Niles' main strip, and ought to be cleaned up by the S. P.

S. P. Agent Ken Bruner, who was present, said he does not have jurisdiction over the area, but advised Secretary Vernon Ellsworth to send a protest to his division office. Ellsworth said he will do so.

NEWARK REZONING MAY HIT SNAGS

Newark's rezoning may be protested today before the Board of Supervisors.

Joe Pashote, president of the Newark Chamber of Commerce, said he and several members will journey to the 10 a.m. hearing in Oakland which will determine if the Planning Commission's proposed rezoning shall be adopted.

Pashote said several Chamber suggestions had been "diaregarded" in the commission's final plan.

Also slated to be on hand are representatives from Westvaco Chemical and E. J. Lavino & Co., as well as Pres. Richard Duff of Bulldog Pallet Co.

Duff charged today his property on Haley Road was recommended for residential rezoning although it adjoins a railroad, and that this would block expansion of his plant.

TRAIN-CAR CRASH IN CENTERVILLE KILLS AUTOIST

An Irvington field worker was killed and two companions were critically injured Tuesday night when the car in which they were riding was struck by an east-bound Southern Pacific freight train at the Highway 17 crossing in the heart of Centerville.

In critical condition in Fairmont Hospital, San Leandro, are Pedro Gonzales and Francisco Gomez. The third man, Jesus Gonzales, cousin of Pedro's, was dead on arrival.

The train was proceeding east when, at 9:20 p.m., according to witnesses, the old-model sedan containing the three men sped parallel to the engine down Baine Avenue, then turned in front of the train.

The impact hurled the car more than 100 feet, tossing its occupants out. The engine, badly smashed, lurched a quarter-mile down the track before stopping.

Bernie Vail, Township Ambulance operator, said Jesus Gonzales was dead when lifted into the ambulance.

Rose A. Silva Dies

Funeral services were held Monday in Chapel of the Palms for Rose A. Silva, 77, of Alvarado, who died Friday in the Mission Road Sanatorium.

She was the aunt of Antoinette Pinto and Elvin A. Rose, of Alvarado, and a member of SPRSI No. 21.

Rites For Mrs. Luera

Funeral services were held this week from Chapel of the Palms for Mrs. Mariana Silva Luera, 58, of 1122 Maiden Lane, Alvarado, who died Sunday in an Oakland hospital.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Lupe Estrada, and a son Julio, in El Paso, Texas.

Van Scoy Sells

Edgar A. Van Scoy, Centerville jeweler for the past six years, this week announced he is selling his business to Harry Feinberg of San Lorenzo.

Feinberg will take over Monday, operating a credit-jewelry type of business, Van Scoy said.

Van Scoy, active in civic affairs, will remain in this area. Future plans have not been announced.

Hayward Wants Hillview In Its Supervisor District

Urged by a spokesman from nearby Hillview Crest, Hayward city councilmen Monday night voted to change the boundary lines of their county supervisor's district to include Hillview Crest.

Peter Lojo, attorney, and representative of the Hillview Homeowners, said a ballot now two-thirds complete in the tract shows 60 per cent of the residents in favor of annexing to Hayward.

Whereupon Hayward councilmen voted to recommend a change in the boundaries of Su-

Flood Curb Vote Seen October 14 For Alvarado, Irvington; Zone 5 Drive on

Major steps to clear the highest hurdle to development of Washington Township were announced this week.

The steps, all aimed at solving flood and drainage problems, are:

1. A bond election to raise $1,743,000 for the area around Irvington, Mission San Jose and Warm Springs, tentatively set for Oct. 14.
2. A similar election, on the same date, scheduled for the region including Alvarado and Hillview Crest.
3. Action by Livermarians to form a joint flood-control, water conservation and drainage zone with Washington Township. Tomorrow (Friday) is slated for an organizational meeting in Livermore.

The Livermore move is the first organized attempt to counter opposition raised by cattlemen around that town. Chairman Al Bonne, of the "Citizens' Committee For Formation of Zone 5" urged wide attendance at the meeting, set for 8 p.m. in the County firehouse there.

The cattlemen quashed Zone 5 last January. It would have provided water conservation—by a series of dams—for Livermore and Pleasanton, and flood control for Washington Township. County experts said this joint zone was the most efficient and economical plan.

County supervisors meanwhile gave all but final ok to the bond elections in Zone 6, around Irvington; in Zone 3-a, which takes in Alvarado and Hillview Crest.

Zone 6 bonds would provide money for drainage canals, levees and dams around Irvington, Warm Springs and Mission, including leveed channels for streams discharging into Stivers Lagoon, new outlets for the Lagoon, and percolation wells nearby.

Zone 3-a bonds would finance $3,700,000 worth of work around Alvarado, repair to the channels of Alameda Creek and Dry Creek, straightening of the Alameda Creek channel downstream from Alvarado, plus miscellaneous drainage projects which could open up the north end of the Township for industry and homes.

Present development is reportedly stymied by lack of drainage, with county officials loath to permit more building because of the extra runoff water it produces.

The county's advance estimates on the two zones declare:

1. The one around Irvington will grow in population from a present 3000 to 200,000.
2. The one embracing Alvarado and Hillview Crest, now containing 25,000 people, has a potential of 180,000.

Sole remaining "unzoned" area in Washington Township comprises the major portion, including Niles, Centerville and Newark. County Flood Control Engineer Herbert C. Crowle told the Centerville Chamber of Commerce several weeks ago it ought to be formed this year, "with Livermore and Pleasanton if possible, but without them if necessary."

An ordinance setting the Oct. 14 elections is scheduled to be adopted Sept. 10 by the Supervisors. Deadline for registration for the elections is August 21. Crowle explained only about $500,000 worth of the Zone 6 bonds will be sold at first, with the balance held in reserve for future work. About $1,000,000 worth of Zone 3-A bonds will be sold initially.

Crowle said if the bond issues are successful, that anti-flood construction can be started next spring.

HOW CRUSADE HELPS LOCAL GIRL SCOUTS

EDITORS NOTE—This is the second of a series of articles on the six agencies which, through the Washington Township Community Chest, receive support from YOUR United Crusade contributions.

It is presented by the TOWNSHIP REGISTER in the interest of better understanding of our agencies and to show how you and your community are benefiting from your support of the United Crusade.

While many of the other health, child care and family counseling services included in the United Crusade are available to Washington Township residents, these are the six agencies giving direct services and receiving direct support in this area: Oakland Council of Boy Scouts, Hayward Council of Girl Scouts, the Salvation Army, Travelers Aid Society of Alameda County, the Irvington Youth Center and the United Defense Fund. This article describes the Girl Scout program here.

Could you give a pill to a dog? Girl Scouts of Troop 77 in Newark could.

They learned how in studying for their animal-care Girl Scout merit badge. Also, as an outgrowth of their badge work, the girls visited animal shelters in Newark and learned how to bathe, feed and care for animals. They became interested in the plight of stray animals in Newark, joined the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and regularly receive its bulletins and literature.

What is more important than this, the girls learned to care for other creatures, be they only animals. Under the direction of their leader, Mrs. Mildred Anderson, they learned how to do research on subjects that interest them. In visiting the animal shelter, they became better acquainted with the facilities of their own community. They worked cooperatively on the project with other girls of their own age; and last but by no means least, they had a good time doing it.

The Newark Troop's project illustrates the Girl Scout program that is serving 203 Washington Township girls in six Brownie and nine Intermediate Girl Scout Troops under the direction of 70 adult leaders.

The Girl Scout program, besides providing a wholesome good time for girls from 8 to 18, prepares them for assuming their adult responsibilities as good citizens. At their weekly meetings, the girls always do some kind of constructive work. They prepare themselves to pass tests for Girl Scout merit badges, which cover almost any field that could interest a girl. Examples of badges are outdoor living, homemaking, good grooming, child care, animal care, and civic government.

In addition to their regular projects, all troops engage in service projects beneficial to the community. They may make a scrapbook for a hospital, or clean up the grounds of the civic building held then.

Janssen's district, with 180,000 registered voters, is by far the largest of the five supervisorial areas. Hayward councilmen earlier had argued that annexation of Hillview would bring their city a big deficit because of the services that would have to be extended.

But finally the councilmen agreed that if the annexation comes, it would be "awkward" to have Hayward in one supervisorial district and Hillview in another.

County Offers To Buy Mill Site For Museum

Historic Vallejo Property Is Issue

Members of the Washington Township Historical Society were elated today over Tuesday's surprise action in which the Board of Supervisors agreed to try and get the society a museum on the historic Vallejo Mill site.

The 11-acre site is owned by the city of San Francisco, and 9 acres currently is under a 10-year lease to E. C. Thomas, Niles steel mill executive, who has vainly tried to secure county permission to put a trailer court there.

On Tuesday the society, represented by Mrs. Roland Bendel and Mrs. Edna Overacker of Niles, met with the supervisors in Oakland. They heard Supervisor Chester Stanley suggest that a permanent museum to house relics of Alameda County's 11-year-old history be placed on the County Fairgrounds, at Pleasanton.

Mrs. Bendel countered with the society's plan to make a museum on the site of Don Jose Jesus de Vallejo's flour mill, erected about 1850 near the intersection of Canyon Road and Highway 9. She suggested the State Park Commission eventually might maintain it, and said it could house Township relics which made such a showing at the June 6 centennial pageant.

However, Mrs. Bendel pointed out, the City of San Francisco's real estate department, headed by John Brucato, wants some profitable enterprise placed on the balance of the site before ceding the two acres for the museum.

Supervisor Harry Bartell then moved to allow the county executive to negotiate with Brucato for the entire 11 acres—"either by purchase or 99-year lease." The motion carried.

Brucato said today that the issue must go first to City Utilities Manager James Turner, then to the Utilities Commission.

He added city policy has been against sale of land to anyone, but declined to speculate about the lease.

In Niles, Thomas said his lease on the 9 acres still has nine years to run, but that he was willing to discuss the matter if Brucato wants to.

Supervisor Stanley said the county has no park set-up, but that it could act as a trustee for the tree-shaded site until the State takes it over—if the State wants it.

where they meet, or plant flowers in a public parkway.

At Christmas time, Washington Township girls cajoled at rest homes, and older girls addressed Christmas cards for invalids unable to do so themselves. Flowers and small presents were given.

Nor are social activities slighted. In Irvington, older girls have joint activities with the Boy Scouts, picking up pointers from the boys on how to tie knots and in turn helping them with their outdoor cooking.

Among the various youth agencies of the United Crusade serving Washington Township, the Girl Scouts have one of the most complete programs. In spite of this, they are far from meeting the demands of Washington Township girls who want the fun and experience of being Girl Scouts.

On the basis of a recent survey, Mrs. Marion Conklin, field director for the Hayward Area Girl Scout Council in Washington Township estimates that this area needs: 11 more Brownie troops, six more intermediate troops, and one senior troop to serve a total of 228 more girls. Eighty more adult volunteers are needed to provide leadership, Mrs. Conklin says.

Washington Township Community Chest gave $2668 to the Hayward Council of Girl Scouts last year to carry out this constructive youth program. It's quite a bargain, but more money is needed to serve all the girls in this growing area who would like to be Girl Scouts. The funds for this youth service come from YOUR donation to the United Crusade.

Mystery Blasts Alarm Township, Blamed On Jets

A series of mysterious blasts shook Washington Township and the South Bay area Tuesday afternoon, and Navy airmen said they probably were caused by jet planes piercing the sound barrier.

The first shock was noted at 3:35 p.m., and rattled windows and shattered dishes in Newark and Centerville, prompting a flood of phone calls to the sheriff's substation and local firehouses.

Two more less violent blasts were heard at 4:45 and 6:45 p.m. At Moffett Field, officers said they might have been caused by jet aircraft diving at blinding speed through the sonic barrier.

This creates a sound in much the same way as when lightning pierces the atmosphere, causing air particles to smash together and cause thunder.

In Centerville, Deputy Coroner Dallas Paul, an aviation enthusiast, gave much the same opinion.

In Newark, Fire Chief Joe Pashote said he received many phone calls asking what caused the blasts.

IRVINGTON 'CITY' STUDY REPORTED

Statistics on incorporation of Irvington were presented Monday night by Gordon Nelson to a meeting of the planning committee of the local chamber of commerce.

Gus Robertson, head of the committee to study incorporation, announced no conclusions have yet been reached, but that a recommendation eventually will be presented to the chamber as a whole.

Next Monday the committee will meet again, to hear a talk by a San Leandro city official.

The group also gave verbal okays to the master-plan map prepared by the County Planning Commission, with zoning changes as prepared by a subcommittee headed by William Humpert.

The map also will be offered for early approval to the chamber, Humpert said.

FARM BUREAU SETS GOALS FOR YEAR

The Alameda County Farm Bureau last week set as its goals for the 1953-54 year such aims as zoning and re-assessment of agricultural lands, rural representation of the County Planning Commission, and revision of the County Flood Control Act.

With 945 members at present, the organization also aimed for 256 new ones this year. Eden-Washington Townships have a quota of 110.

President Harry Murphy named several Washington Township members to his new committees. These include:

Harold Faria and Bruce Michael, membership; Richard Johnson Sr., finance; Michael, legislative and program.

BOMBS TO SCARE DUCKS OFF CROPS

Federal and State wildlife agencies responsible for the management of waterfowl have completed plans to provide maximum assistance to California farmers in preventing crop depredation this fall.

Following a recent meeting of waterfowl specialists at Sacramento, Regional Director Leo Laythe of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, and Director Seth Gordon of the California Department of Fish and Game, revealed that the two agencies have organized their facilities to cope with problems that may arise upon the arrival of sprig ducks, which usually appear in California about the first of August.

More than 10,000 acres of a dozen State and Federal waterfowl management areas throughout the State are producing feed for the waterfowl on their arrival. The waterfowl will be herded to these areas to keep them off farm crops.

When ducks arrive in the agricultural sections of California, personnel of the two agencies will be ready to issue duck-scaring devices to farmers. Rifle grenades, noise bombs and flares are on hand in areas most vulnerable to crop damage.

One of the most successful methods used by landowners to keep birds off their crops is by the night use of giant revolving searchlights, the announcement stated. Lights are not issued by the governmental agencies, but may be purchased from private sources by the property owner.

A proposal to coordinate landowners' efforts to herd birds from private property was also discussed.

cussed. Wildlife men will consult with farmers on the best techniques of herding waterfowl onto refuges and will coordinate this activity.

Herd equipment provided by the Federal agency will be issued by State fish and game wardens in the various areas of the State as the birds arrive.

HOME for the week-end was Pvt. Leonard Frates Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Frates of Main Street. He is stationed at Fort Ord.

IT'S A GIRL for Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hammers, born July 24. Baby's name is Candace Venette, and she weighed 7 pounds, four ounces. She has a sister, Sharon. Grandparents are Mrs. Zella Hammers of Irvington and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Nevels of Decoto.

MEMBERS of the Irvington Youth Center spent Wednesday at a weiner roast in Hidden Valley.

A SPEEDY RECOVERY to Mrs. Mary Ann Rebello, who underwent surgery last week.

MR. and MRS. PAUL BAKER and Paulette are home on Durham Road after a 3-week visit to North Carolina, where they visited Mrs. Baker's relatives. En route, they called on the Clyde Hobbses of Lanaca, Arkansas, former residents of Niles; and Mr. Baker's family in Oklahoma.

NOW LIVING in the Marchisio Apartments are Mrs. Zella Hammers and her children, formerly of Centerville.

SPEEDY RECOVERY to Mrs. Sandra Marchisio, who was hurt in an accident in San Jose.

GOOD LUCK to new businesses in town: Jerry Cochran, who has a refrigerator repair shop; Evangeline Stevenson, a public stenographer; and Dr. Bruce K. Battleson.

Needles of five to ten inches in length grow in clusters of two or three on the ponderosa pine.

SUZY SEZ...

I know a mother in Mission San Jose who has been keeping her youngsters in sun suits and shorts that need no ironing. It has made it a real vacation, she says, and now she threatens to continue the use of the scanty garments on into Fall. I think we all could skimp on ironing a bit, and no one would suffer. Our favorite tee-ager agrees heartily when I groan about having to press his pants, "In five minutes they are so wrinkled no one knows how hard you worked."

There are non-Township residents who seem to think we lead a completely rural life here. Recently, one such visitor from across the Bay Bridge was amazed to see our many tract homes that have sprung up in the last few years. He says he can remember when there were twice as many dairy cows as people in Washington Township, when city-dwellers got a view of country life by driving down almost any road where now homes are going up over night.

The man of the family recently surprised me with a corsage and tickets to a play, and the announcement that we had reservations at a very fancy place for a late dinner and dancing. Our favorite teenager seemed to think we are too old to enjoy such pleasures, but we showed him there was some life in the old folks. (I still creak where muscles I'd forgotten about were used in dancing.) And I wouldn't let him know that Ma and Pa enjoyed the next week-end when we stayed home and did nothing, as much as the one we spent "on the town."

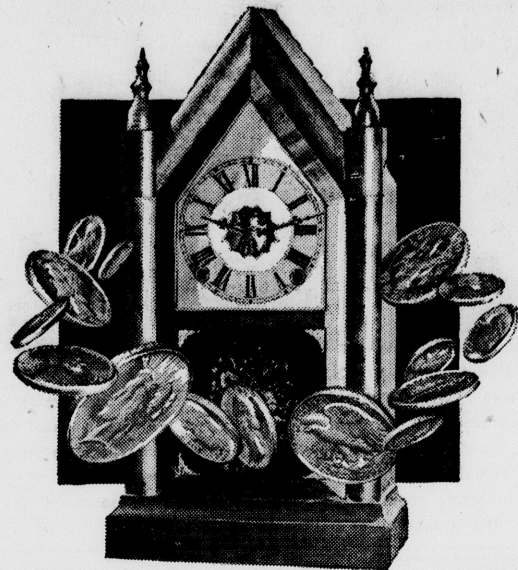

To save time and trouble in sorting sheets, sew a few stitches on opposite corners of each one, with separate colors for the sheet size, such as red for double, blue for twin, and black for cot size. Even our youngest has no trouble locating the proper sheets in the linen closet, now.

I am intrigued by the names of some recipes I have that can be traced back to Revolutionary times. Can you imagine making and serving something called Toad-in-a-Hole, Hoppin' Joe, John Dory, or Hangtown Fry? Many of the old-time recipes use fish casserole dishes. For the most inedible-sounding food, I would pick Spider Cake, which is really an omelet in the center of a rich corn bread, and was originally cooked in a frying pan called a spider, on the hearth.

I'm looking forward to the comfort the children will be in my old age, but do they have to help me get there so quickly? So long...

Last year, Federal Excise Taxes paid by the average telephone subscriber in the Pacific West came to about $1.80 a month.

THE EXCISE TAX IN YOUR TELEPHONE BILL

We collect it from you for the Federal Government

Perhaps you've wondered, "What does the amount marked 'U. S. Tax' on my telephone bill really mean?" Simply, it's the Federal Excise Tax which is levied directly on your local and long distance telephone calls. While this tax is included as a part of the total amount of your telephone bill, it's actually a separate tax which you pay on your telephone service. We merely collect it from our customers for the government — and it is then set aside to be passed along to the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Paying the cost of government is, of course, the responsibility of all Americans and all American businesses. As a company, Pacific Telephone pays—and expects to pay—its full share of regular income and property taxes. But the Excise Tax is a separate tax—which you pay—averaging about $22 a year for the average telephone subscriber in the West. And we make this report on it so that next time you receive your telephone bill, you'll perhaps pause to consider that telephone rates are lower than you may have thought.

On the job for pennies a call

Despite sharply increased costs—for taxes, wages and materials—we've been able to keep telephone rates low. So low, in fact, that your telephone still carries your messages for a few pennies a call.

YOUR TELEPHONE IS ONE OF TODAY'S BEST BARGAINS

Pacific Telephone

This demonstration showed me the way to a better deal!

I'd been planning to buy a higher-priced car until I found out all Chevrolet offered—and how much I could save!

You get more power on less gas

That's because Chevrolet's two great valve-in-head engines are high-compression engines. In Powerglide® models, you get the most powerful engine in Chevrolet's field—the new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame." Gearshift models offer the advanced 108-h.p. "Thrifty-King" engine.

And it's the lowest-priced line

A demonstration will show you that Chevrolet offers just about everything you could want. Yet it's the lowest-priced line in the low-price field.

*Combination of Powerglide automatic transmission and 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine optional on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models at extra cost.

You're "sitting pretty" behind the wheel

Take this Bel Air model. First thing you'll notice is the quality of the interior. Rich-looking appointments. Roomy seats with foam rubber cushions. Turn the key to start the engine and you're ready to go.

You can see all around

You look out and down through a wide, curved, one-piece windshield. The panoramic rear window and big side windows provide a clear view in all directions.

Biggest brakes for smoother, easier stops

An easy nudge on the pedal brings smooth, positive response—right now! Chevrolet's improved brakes are the largest in the low-price field.

It's heavier for better roadability

You're in for a pleasant surprise at the smooth, steady, big-car ride of this new Chevrolet. One reason is that, model for model, Chevrolet will weigh up to 200 pounds more than the other low-priced cars.

You get greater getaway with the new Powerglide®

A lot finer performance on a lot less gas. That's what you get with the new Powerglide automatic transmission. There's no more advanced automatic transmission at any price.

Let us demonstrate all the advantages of buying a Chevrolet now!

SENATOR TAFT'S PLACE IN HISTORY

Death of Senator Robert Taft removes a controversial figure from the political scene, a man in the influential-but-never-President class with Clay and Calhoun.

Maybe you didn't agree with Taft, but you had to admire him. He was honest above everything else, even when honesty wasn't popular. We remember the comment of Harry Lundeborg, boss of the sailors' union, who said approvingly of the Senator: "He don't feed you that sweet con."

Taft represented a philosophy which never attracted many liberals, but he wasn't as black as the radicals painted him. It was more that the extreme reactionaries rode his coat-tails, vainly hopeful that through him they might defeat the forces which overwhelmed them at the polls.

Time played for Taft. Even the law which made his name so explosive to labor now has lost much of its power to stir the voter.

Bred to politics, Senator Taft was a party man to the bone. This may have limited his scope, but it also showed his fine side, as when he worked so hard in Congress, just prior to his death, for the policies of his onetime rival, Eisenhower.

Even in death, Taft provided a squabble over his succession and control of the Senate. Like his life, his death was charged with politics in the American tradition.

WATER DISTRICT POLICY

The Alameda County Water District makes its first report to the public in 39 years, and immediately a question is raised: is it best for the district to put money aside for future pipes and pumps, or should that money be applied to reduce rates?

So far, the directors have decided in favor of the future growth. If they can't buy the mains, then the subdivisions can't come. And if they can't, taxes and rates of all kinds—not just water—will stay high. However, there is the argument that a bond issue would be fairer, so that future residents could help shoulder the load borne by present rate-payers.

Nobody knows much about the water district, which is understandable in view of its lack of public reports. Anyway, now is a good time for Township folks to take an interest in it, and to decide through word to their directors, just what policies they want it to follow, now that these policies are bearing so heavily on the future of all of us.

A JOB TO TACKLE

Interesting study for parents is contained in the recent report on South Alameda County schools made by the Committee For Prevention of Juvenile delinquency.

The painstaking document mentions (1) that more classes are needed for handicapped youngsters, (2) that more thought ought to be given to 'teen-age drop-outs from school, and (3) that a better liaison ought to exist between teachers and parents.

The observations, no doubt are true, especially the last one. School cannot do all for the child, especially when parents are blind to their offspring's welfare.

The report was directed to various official bodies, but we hope the local PTA's will take it up. From these grass-root organizations should come the most effective action.

HAWAII BECKONED THIS MYSTERY MAN

Did you guess last week's Mystery Man was Dan Quartaroli? This week we bring you a widely-known Township figure, one you ought to be able to guess without having to look it up elsewhere in the news columns.

His name was supposed to have been Elizabeth. That's what his mother picked out ahead of time, because she wanted a girl. But after our Mystery Man's birth, in 1911, and that of his two younger brothers, his mother gave up Elizabeth.

The family lived on the grounds of the DuPont plant in Bay City, Michigan. That was because Father was resident plant superintendent. Here again, the situation wasn't to Mother's liking. The plant was subject to violent explosions, and they gave her the galloping worries.

However, all members of the family survived intact. After high school in Northern Michigan (fishing, winter and water sports, cornet in the school band,) our subject graduated in 1931 and worked until 1935 as a theater projectionist and assistant manager. It was well-paid work in the Depression. But in 1935, he tired of woods, water and snow, and with a friend took off, via the thumb route, to see the world.

They decided to hitch-hike to California, where our Mystery Man had an aunt, en route to Honolulu, which seemed to be a logical take-off spot for a glamorous, penniless world tour.

Our man arrived on June 21 in Centerville, where his aunt lived. That week he went to work in the Booth Cannery, to replenish his finances, before moving on to Kamehameha's islands.

The comely daughter of an old Township family was working in the cannery office. One day she spotted our sunburned hero lifting trays, told him with a smile: "You'll make some girl a good husband." got the prompt answer: "Any propositions?"

From this beginning, it took two years, but in 1938 he deferred the purchase of some fishing tackle to buy a ring, and the deal was made.

About this time he went to work for Westvaco Chemical Co., bought a home, and... well, he's still waiting to see Honolulu.

Meantime however, this man of mystery threw himself wholeheartedly into Cub Scout work. He became active in Masonic circles, helped organize the Newark Booster's Club and finally served as president of the Newark Chamber of Commerce.

He is perhaps best known to the greatest number of Townshipers through a sideline interest which consumes more and more of his time, and which brings him in contact with the law, attorneys, insurance adjusters and newspapermen.

Guess Who?
